Bay Area Young Survivors (BAYS) is a support and action group for people diagnosed at age forty-five or younger in the SF Bay Area who are living with breast cancer. The goal of BAYS is to break the isolation of living with breast cancer by providing a community built on compassion, understanding, hope, and inspiration.

Community Building:

-We coordinate diverse community-building events that offer a rich environment to support the emotional needs of our members. Examples include

-Physical challenge events designed to help us get our bodies back (hikes, kayaking and paddle boarding, etc.)

-Educational events on a variety of cancer-related topics hosted by doctors and other health professionals

-Social events such as holiday gatherings and clothing swaps where we share wigs, medical garments, breast prostheses, and clothes for our changing bodies (we do not underestimate the power of something "new" to help feel better, especially with the extreme body changes that occur during treatment)

-The construction of a BAYS memorial garden where our community can gather to honor and remember the members we've lost.
